Made this year for girls 6 to 16 years.

The "Why" of a Good-Year Welt Shoe for Boys

Has to do with both its appearance and its wear. Machine stitching is far better looking than brass rivets and wooden pegs, and a stitched welted sole has longer and stronger wearing qualities.

Sizes:—Little Gents' $1.75; Youths' $2.25; and Boys' $2.50.

If Your Little Children Need Stockings

For school or play or better wear, then you should see these at 12½c, 15c and 25c a pair, which are three kinds we especially call your attention.

At 12½c a pair, heavy ribbed; at 15c, fine ribbed; at 25c, fine, silk lisle, ribbed. Black only. Sizes 5 to 9½.

Attractive Reception. Most attractive in all the appointments was the reception given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Thomas J. Parrell from 9 to 5 o'clock in her home on Clay street. The rooms were most brilliant in their floral decorations, the autumnal glow pervading everywhere.

In the reception hall crimson dahlias and asters with greenery were used while in the parlor pink dahlias and potted begonias were grouped with pleasing effect. The hostess was assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. James Glenn, and Mrs. Glenn Milliken, of Hoosic Falls, N. Y., and assisting through the rooms were Mrs. Frank L. Grove and Mrs. Harvey W. Harmer. Fruit punch was refreshingly served by Mrs. Charles Harding assisted by Misses Williams and Coleman upon the arrival of the guests.

A color scheme of yellow and white was used in the dining room where refreshments were served. The large bay window formed a bower of greenery and was an attractive background to the grouping of golden rod, dahlias and nasturtiums. Mrs. Joseph Hart and Mrs. Thompson H. Williams presided at the table and were assisted in serving the guests by Mrs. Charles S. Warner, Mrs. A. S. Robey and Mrs. W. Frank Stout. In the library where asters and wild flowers formed the decorations coffee was graciously poured by Mrs. Hugh Jarvis assisted by Miss Nellie Hursey and Miss Iona Smith. About 150 guests called during the afternoon notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather.

You'll find in this assemblage of coats all the models approved by the most eminent authorities on children's fashions. The juvenile "500" of New York and the other large cities are wearing coats precisely similar to those in style, quality and workmanship.

Our rockers are strong and comfortable

Dear Amy:--

You've asked me where to buy your furniture. I'll tell you. So where I do. Why, do you know, when John and I were married, papa bought us from them, a set of furniture for a present. Not a single piece of it has broken, nor has any of the varnish cracked, and here I am now the mother of a great big young baby!

You and Bob, just must run over to see us. Always lovingly, Lou
